Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

The Celebrant says

Almighty God, you know our hearts and everything that we want. There are no secrets kept from you. Give us clean hearts full of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise Messiah: Hallelujah (G.F. Handel)

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only Son, Jesus, overcame death and opened to us the gate that leads to everlasting life; Let us, all of us who celebrate with joy this day of Jesus’s resurrection, be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who live and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

LESSON: ACTS 10:34-43 (The congregation may be seated.)

A Reading from the Book of the Acts of the Apostles.

Then Peter began to speak. “I now realize how true it is that God treats everyone the same,” he said. “He accepts people from every nation. He accepts anyone who has respect for him and does what is right. You know the message God sent to the people of Israel. It is the good news of peace through Jesus Christ. He is Lord of all. You know what has happened all through the area of Judea. It started in Galilee after John preached about baptism. You know how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. Jesus went around doing good. He healed all who were under the devil’s power. God was with him.

“We are witnesses of everything he did in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed him by nailing him to a cross. But on the third day God raised him from the dead. God allowed Jesus to be seen. But he wasn’t seen by all the people. He was seen only by us. We are witnesses whom God had already chosen. We ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people. He told us to tell people that he is the one appointed by God to judge the living and the dead. All the prophets tell about him. They say that all who believe in him have their sins forgiven through his name.”

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The children are invited to the chancel steps for the Gospel and sermon.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: MATTHEW 28:1-10 (Please remain standing for the reading of the Gospel.)

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

The Sabbath day was now over. It was dawn on the first day of the week. Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. There was a powerful earthquake. An angel of the Lord came down from heaven. The angel went to the tomb. He rolled back the stone and sat on it. His body shone like lightning. His clothes were as white as snow. The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men. The angel said to the women, "Don't be afraid. I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here! He has risen, just as he said he would! Come and see the place where he was lying. Go quickly! Tell his disciples, 'He is risen from the dead. He is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you." So the women hurried away from the tomb. They were afraid, but they were filled with joy. They ran to tell the disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them "Greetings!" he said. They came to him, took hold of his feet and worshipped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Don't be afraid. Go tell my brothers to go to Galilee. There they will see me."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

A Child's Creed

The celebrant reads and the people repeat. Please stand as you are able.

We believe in one God, in three persons.

We believe in God the Father, who made everything.

We believe in God the Son, Jesus Christ: He came from heaven

To live as one of us, and he died for us.

Then he was raised from the dead, and now He lives in heaven with God the Father.

We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who lives with us and in us to guide us and comfort us.

We believe that because of God's grace, not even death can separate us from God's love and we will live in eternal Life. Amen.

The children return to their families.

Prayers of the People

Leader Let us pray for the church and the world.

We thank you for Church of the Ascension and all churches.

In your mercy

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for those that serve you. We pray for Bishop G, Bishop-elect Richard, and our priests, Candice and David, and for all bishops, priests and deacons.

In your mercy

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for President Trump, Governor Ivey, Mayor Reed, members of Congress, Judges, and all other leaders in our world, countries, states and cities.

We pray that they may look to you for guidance as they make decisions.

In your mercy

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader We thank you and ask you for protection for all those that care for others including the military, police, firefighters, lifeguards, doctors, nurses, teachers and those who work in dangerous places.

In your mercy

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader We thank you for those serving in our various ministries at Ascension, including the choirs, ushers, acolytes, sextons, Sunday School teachers, kitchen folks, nursery workers, outreach volunteers, vestry, finance committee and others. Help us all to do your work in the world.
In your mercy

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader We ask your compassion on the poor, the sick, the hungry, the homeless, those who are struggling with life, those who are enslaved and all natural disaster victims, victims of violence and those who are afraid.
In your mercy

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Offertory Sentence: Yours O Lord is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty. For everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, O Lord, is the kingdom and you are exalted over all.

Offertory Anthem: Te Deum (J. Rutter)

*Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of thy glory.
The glorious company of the apostles praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the prophets praise thee.
The noble army of martyrs praise thee.
The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee,
the Father, of an infinite majesty,
thine adorable, true, and only Son,
also the Holy Ghost the Comforter. Thou art the King of glory, O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man,
thou didst humble thyself to be born of a Virgin.
When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou shalt come to be our judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants,
whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy saints, in glory everlasting.*

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us say thank you to the Lord our God.
People It is right to say thank you to God.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to God all the time.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

During the singing of the Sanctus, children are invited to come to the altar for the Eucharistic prayer. Please accompany children 4 years old and younger.

Celebrant and People

Sanctus Hymn S128 Holy, holy, holy (W. Mathias)

Ho - ly, ho - ly,
ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

The Celebrant continues (The people remain standing or kneel.)

We thank you Lord because out of love you created everything: the sun, the stars, water, trees, animals, and all of us. And even when we act selfishly, and we don't love you, you love us too much to stay mad at us. For this reason, you sent your Son, Jesus, to come be one of us. And Jesus loved us so much, that he gave his life to keep the evil from getting to us. For our sakes, he let Himself be hurt and killed on the cross.

On the night before he died. He had dinner with his friends. And at dinner, they had bread, because bread is food that gives life. Jesus took the bread. He blessed the bread. He broke the bread. And then he gave it to his friends.

Repeat after me:

Jesus took the bread.

Jesus blessed the bread.

Jesus broke the bread.

Jesus gave it to his friends.

And then Jesus said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you, do this for the remembrance of me."

They also had wine at the table. Wine is a strong, red, drink that comes from crushing grapes. Jesus took a cup of wine. He blessed it. Then he gave it to his friends.

Repeat after me:

Jesus took a cup of wine.

Jesus blessed it.

Jesus gave it to his friends.

And then Jesus said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

So Lord God, we offer this bread and this wine to you, just as Jesus did that night, proclaiming the great mystery of faith:

Repeat after me:

Christ has died

Christ has risen

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

Holy Spirit, come down like a dove, as you came down to Jesus at His baptism, to bless this bread to be for us the Body of Christ. And bless this wine to be for us the blood of Christ. Fill us with joy to receive the body and blood of Christ as His faithful children. Jesus is present with us. Jesus is part of us. Jesus is part of you.

Repeat after me:

Jesus is present with us.

Jesus is part of us.

Jesus is part of you.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ. By him, with him and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

The Celebrant then continues

And now, our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

Officiant and People

Our Father who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
 Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith with thanksgiving. (The people may be seated)

Children return to their families.

The Communion

All Christians are invited to come forward to receive communion. Please stay to the right side of the aisle as you come forward and return to your pew. Fill the main altar rail from the right side wall to the left side wall and leave by the chapel side steps. There will also be a communion station in the chapel. If you are unable to come forward, let an usher know and they will ensure the sacrament is brought to you. You may also come forward to receive a blessing only. Simply fold your arms over your chest. Gluten free wafers are available upon request.

After Communion, the Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People (standing or kneeling)

Eternal God, Heavenly Father, we thank you for accepting us as members of your family through your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and for feeding us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing (The people stand)

The priest blesses the people, saying

May Almighty God, who has redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord, bestow upon you the riches of his blessing. Amen.

May God, who through the water of baptism has raised us from sin into newness of life, make you holy and worthy to be united with Christ forever. Amen.

May God, who has brought us out of bondage to sin into true and lasting freedom in the Redeemer, bring you to your eternal inheritance. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you forever. Amen.

The children are invited to process behind the clergy for the Easter Egg Hunt. Parents of those four (4) years and under are encouraged to accompany their child.
